

The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017)

7.3.1 Elaborate on any two best practices in the given format at page no.98, which have contributed to the achievement of the Institutional Objectives and / or contributed to the Quality improvement to the core activities of the college.

Title of the Project: I] YOGA IN MUSIC

Goal:

Music is very sensitive fine art & it is closely connected to Yoga. Practicing the Yoga helps the music student to perform music in a very disciplined way. It also helps the students to increase their physical, Mental strength. It also helps the aspirants to enhance their confidence level.

The Context:

Yoga is the best way to keep the Physical & Mental fitness. Hence we conduct special classes of Yoga for students.

The Practice:

Rendition of Raga requires special control on breathing. By practising Yoga we can improve the breathing system. Doing pranayama helps musicians to improve their concentration level. "Bhramari" helps the musicians to improve their vocal cords and it also helps to bring melody to their voice.

Constraints:

Most of the students are from rural background and they are poor also, some of our students are disabled and visually challenged. In spite of all these difficulties we convinced them to practise yoga and improve their style of singing and to play musical instruments.

Evidence of success:

By practising yoga our students performance level has been increased without stage fear they are performing and participating in various music programmes.

Problems encountered and resources required:

One of the alumnae is diploma in yoga she conducts yoga classes to our students twice in a week.

7.4 Contribution to environmental awareness / protection:

Every year college organises tree plantation programmes in the college.
