CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Music is completely practical course. It needs skill and talent so only interested students seek admissions to this course but our Institution is trying to create awareness and atmosphere about Hindustani classical music through various programmes. In B.Music course there are individual differences among learners and therefore, programmes are devised to cater personalized attention to the individual students, We do take initiation to help the advanced learners For the effective delivery of course curriculum, with the association of IQAC, Principal have interactions with staff soon after the notification of Calendar of Events by Karnatak University. Principal collects the suggestions and recommendations from the respective staff with regard to augmentation of learning resources, infrastructural facilities required to be implemented during the year. This will enable Principal to prepare overall budgetary provisions. The teacher staff bound to submit teaching plan which indicate the coverage of curriculum within completion of academic period. Semester endresult is evaluated and analysed. The overall impact and performance of the students enable the institution to identify slow learners and advanced students. College do conduct remedial classes for slow learners and guide such students to cope up the course content. Special classes are conducted for the improvement of those students who are weak in studies and knowledge. Given scope to Advanced and competent students to rigorous training and guide them to perform outside the campus. Music being a specific course, college regularly conducts bridge course on different subjects.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

During the year, bridge course is conducted on Khayal subjects for one week. Principal ensures all the instruments are on working conditions. Any instruments required to be repaired, purchase of spare parts, etc., for all these, Principal earmarks budgetary provisions. In the case of introduction of unaided subjects, excess of workload to the existing staff, Principal prepares the required human resources for teaching and gets the Management permission for hiring such staff. Internal Test, mid-term and preparatory examination help us to assess the feedback. The collective hints and suggestions are given to students. We provide the students audio video-cassette of eminent musicians. The attentions of the students is drawn towards the question papers and the methods of evaluation. The pre-testing and preparatory questions are asked to make the teaching, learning and training as a gainful activity. We encourage the faculty members to participate in all the useful seminars workshops and such other training camps. College depute teaching staff for professional training outside the campus. College has upgraded computers and internet facility so that teachers could utilize ICT optimally.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

Inclusiveness in terms of tolerance, integration, equity and harmony play a major role in the vision and mission of the college. Inclusive environment is envisioned through affirmative policies such as providing preference to minorities, girls and differently abled students during admission process. Students from various places, especially socially and economically disadvantaged students are also given priority. Once the students are admitted in the College, they are ensured of equality of opportunities, Human dignity and justice irrespective of their background, gender, cultural or socioeconomic status. Students are given guidance and needed support when they apply for various scholarships. Any scholarship sanctioned is sent to their account directly through NEFT by the Department of Social Welfare, Govt. of Karnataka. Various Associations, Unions and Clubs of the Student Union along with various academic events ensure that each student irrespective of their caste, creed, social and economic status is provided a platform to perform and showcase their talent. The dress code is another great equalizer. Ample scope is provided to students through collaborative learning like group discussions, Seminars, project work and project launch activities that get students together and focus on their interests and talents, thereby transcending class, caste and language barriers.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best Practice 1 Aaj Ka Vidyarthi Kal ke Kalakar (Today's Students Tomorrow's Artist) Objectives of the Practice : • To enhance the Hindustani classical music presentation art of outgoing students. •

To enable students to become competent enough to get employable. • To prepare students to present a raga systematically. • To build stage courage to perform on stage. • To prepare and motivate them for higher education after their graduations. • To attract good number of students for the course of B.Music. • To have good track record of Programme outcome and course outcome. • To elevate the goodwill of the Institution. The Context: India is well known for Traditional Art which requires rigorous practice and thorough study. Essentially additional guidance of teachers and experts are very much needed to prepare student competent to face the current world after his/her graduation. Based on the suggestions and recommendations of different stakeholders i.e., students, parents, alumnus of the college and also changes in the professional field, to promote and motivate students college has come with the concept of Today's music students Tomorrows Arts. Most of the students confine to limited practice on Music but we thought atleast some of the aspirant students to nurture them to become competent and to become a performing artists so that he / she can become a role model as an vocalist or instrumentalists.
